THE WEEKLY CLARION.

Hon. Jacob Thompson.

We make the following extracts from the letter of this distinguished Mississippian, published a few weeks since in the Oxford Falcon. The letter was dated Aug. 11th, and directed to a friend in this State. It is unnecessary to say that no one in this State for a moment credited the foul accusation made against Mr. Thompson, by suborned witnesses, that he was implicated in the assassination of for Abraham Lincoln. The President aur n must now be convinced of his innocence, and justice requires that Mr. Thompson should be allowed to return to his home. As a gentleman of unblemished moral character, and as a statesman whose patriotism and talents are unquestioned, the people would welcome Jacob Thompson to the State whose destinies he desires to share, and for whose interests, as a public servant, he labored long and faithfully.

"I assure you that, with all her faults I love my country. There is no other such country in the world. I have visited every kingdom and people which have any position among the nations of the earth, and with the intention-if ever I could find an acceptable place-to settle down and cathe my little family around me, and there, in quiet, spend the remnant of my days, but I find no place in which I am willing to leave my family. No, for good or evil, the best country is in the United States; and if there could only be security of person, property and reputation, it would be the most desirable country on earth. At all events, those dependent on me, I want them to remain and abide the fate and destiny of their country. What shall become of me is of but little consequence; my days of usefulness are past. My sun is fast hastening to its setting, but my will shall be that when life's fitful fever is over, my body shall be buried beneath the soil which has been fattened with the blood of my ancestors in the struggle for its independence."

In reference to President Johnson he observes: "Mr. Johnson is or may be well disposed, but yielding to the suggestions of a deep designing malignancy on the part of others, he has inflicted upon me a gross injustice; he has done me a grievous wrong in denouncing me as an escaped felon. I believe he knows as an escaped feton. I believe he knows office Department, and paid from the con and feels it, but I fear he is like all tingent fund, for the fiscal year ending June other men—the more groundless the thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six reasons for his injury, the more obstinate he will be in refusing to make reparation. Moreover, the President so well disposed. I would be unwilling to embarrass him with any thing and fifty-five cents. ing to embarrass him with any thing on my account, for I honestly believe if he succeeds there is some hope for the country. If he fails, the Constitution is buried, civil rights will become bywords, liberty is gone, and a thereof as may be due. come bywords, liberty is gone, and a deep gloom of inevitable darkness hangs over the destiny of the greatest meaning by the world. I weigh not my own fate as a feather in the balance; I only hope to live until I shall have power under the law to prosecute the that awaits the evil-door in the next in the treasury not otherwise appropriate world would be too long in its coming." world would be too long in its coming.
